Tentative Agreements Reached with All Four Labor Unions

October 1, 2012 (Akron, Ohio) – In an attempt to achieve Labor Management peace, the four City of Akron Unions and the Mayor discussed a proposal to resolve all four Collective Bargaining Agreements at the same time. These efforts over the last six weeks have been successful and resulted in a tentative agreement between the City of Akron and the IAFF, Local #330, the FOP, Akron Lodge #7, AFSCME, Local 1360 and the Civil Service Personnel Association.

This Agreement is subject to each Union's ratification process which shall occur over the next two (2) weeks. State Law prevents the release of the specific terms until after ratification.
