Link as a Permanent Menu Option

Mayfield Heights Police

The Toolkit has its own menu option and then has its own page that includes the link.

<http://www.mayfieldheights.org/679/Victims-Rights-Toolkit>

Fairborn Police

The direct link is its own menu option.

<http://ci.fairborn.oh.us/240/Police-Department>

St. Mary's Police

A link to the Toolkit is included as a permanent option under Police in the website menu on the left side.

<http://www.cityofstmarys.net/departments/police>

Fairfield Police

The link is its own menu option embedded under "Community Services."

<https://www.fairfield-city.org/384/Police-Department>

Clickable Button/Logo on Main Page

Mt. Healthy Police

The Toolkit is linked by a clickable button halfway down the single police page.

<http://mthealthy.org/departments/police/>

Vermilion Police

The Toolkit is linked by the name and logo of Ohio Crime Victim Justice Center at the right side near the bottom of each page.

<http://www.vermilionpolice.com/>

Seneca County Sheriff

The Toolkit link can be found in two places: as a clickable button with the Toolkit's name ("Crime Victims Rights Toolkit") on the bottom left side of the home page and as a hyperlink on the "Links" page.
